AMANDA ANDERSON

Front End Developer

PROFILE

Full stack student currently enrolled in a coding bootcamp with an expected completion December 2020. I have a background in customer experience and intend to bring strong communication skills and a focus an exceptional user interface. I enjoy working with teams and using my strengths to help others, as well as push myself in areas of opportunities. I have a passion for front-end development a look forwards to learning more about the back end to strengthen my work.

CONTACT

✉ Aanderson_120@yahoo.com

🔘 github.com/aanderson120

🌐 Amanda-anderson-portfolio.heroku.com

EXPERIENCE

American Eagle Outfitters

01/14 – 07/20 – STORE MANAGER

- Partner with District Manager to utilize analytical and business acumen skills in district conference calls and assist in training peers to leverage company tools to improve business.
- Known for building a culture of recognition within the store to motivate the team to drive for results.
-Known for passion around technology and it's use to elevate the experience for both internal and external customers.

American Eagle Outfitters

12/10-12/14 – ASSISTANT STORE MANGER

- Completed Operations and Merchandising DORs in 2 different high-volume stores and lead high level corporate visits.
- Partnered with Store Manger to develop associates and build top talent to drive for results
-Known for building peer relationships within district

Old Navy

10/04-12/10

-Known for driving results with loyalty program. Training team in best practices and developing store contests to deliver consistent performance
-Known for the ability to learn on the fly, writing an effective schedule, and drive to deliver top results as the Manager on Duty.

SKILLS

- HTML/CSS
- JavaScript
- jQuery
- Bootstrap
- Express.js
- React.js
- Node.js
- MongoDB/MySQL

EDUCATION

University of MN

09/20-12/20

Full Stack Web Design Bootcamp

Art Institutes International MN

2004-2006

Associates of Applied Science Degree in Interior Design